Directions

BY CAR

From the M5 take the A419 to Stroud (5 miles). From the M4 take either the A419 or A46. Follow the signs for Stroud town centre. From the town centre pick up and follow signs to Painswick out on the A46. You go under the railway viaduct past the Apollo Cinema, turning left at the following roundabout, and straight over the one after that. Directly after that roundabout turn right on to Painswick Old Road leading to Wick Street. Hawkwood is about a mile on the right.

BY TRAIN

The nearest station is Stroud a 40 minutes walk from Hawkwood. This is 90 minutes travel from London Paddington. Local taxis are usually available at the station. Enter through the double brown gates we are at the end of the drive.

BY AIR

From Bristol International Airport take a train to Bristol Temple Meads (20 minute journey) change and get a train to Gloucester (45 minutes) and then a train to Stroud (15 minutes). From London Heathrow Airport, take the AirLink coach to Reading railway station (45 minute journey with a coach every 20 minutes) and then the train to Stroud (65 minutes). From London Gatwick Airport, take the train to London Victoria (30 minute journey with a train every 15 minutes), and then the Underground Circle Line west to Paddington (around 25 minutes) for the train to Stroud (90 minutes).
